FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Spring Mountain Corridor Redevelopment Plan Launches Summer Community Pop-Up Events

Seeking Input and Engagement from Community at Various Small Businesses

(Las Vegas) June 3, 2024: The Spring Mountain Corridor Redevelopment Plan has launched a series of community pop-up events aimed at raising awareness and engaging residents, small business owners and visitors about this project. The goal is also to celebrate and renovate one of the most iconic neighborhoods in Las Vegas.

Upcoming pop-up dates and locations:

June 8 & 15, 2024, 12PM - 7PM

Urban Matcha Cafe (3400 South Jones Boulevard #3, Las Vegas NV 89146)

June 7, 14 & 21, 5PM - 8PM

Chinatown Plaza (4206 Spring Mountain Road, Las Vegas NV 89102)

June 22 11AM - 2PM

Pot Master Wagyu Bites (4300 Spring Mountain Road #103, Las Vegas NV 89102)

Pop-Up Highlight: June 14th 5-8p at Chinatown Plaza

Meet and greet with LVMPD Spring Mountain Anti-Crime Resource Team for a conversation on public safety awareness

The pop-up events, with special weekly themes, will take place throughout the month of June at various locations throughout the Spring Mountain Corridor. Each event will showcase general information and timeline of the redevelopment plan. Project leaders and team members will also be on hand to help the public fill out community surveys and answer any questions they may have.

The redevelopment plan includes initiatives to improve transportation and streets, increase community and green spaces, support local businesses and enhance the overall cultural aesthetic of the Spring Mountain corridor. By incorporating community feedback, the project aims to reflect the aspirations and needs of the residents, business owners, and visitors.
